La Habra Police Department Press Release

Restaurant Burglaries

La Habra, CA - July 28, 2016: At approximately 12:50 a.m., officers were dispatched to the California Sushi and Teriyaki restaurant, located in the 1000 block of E. Whittier Blvd., regarding a burglary alarm. Upon arrival, officers found that someone had gained entry into the location by breaking a window. At this time, there appears to have been no loss of property. A short while later, at approximately 1:18 a.m., officers were dispatched to My Pizza Hub, located in the 1500 block of W. Whittier Blvd., regarding a burglary alarm. Upon arrival, officers again found a window had been smashed, and it was determined that property had been taken from the business. The total loss at the second location is estimated to be eight hundred dollars in US currency.

At approximately 10:15 a.m., a third burglary, with a similar method of entry, was reported as having occurred at Mike's Mexican Food, located in the 400 block of W. Whittier Blvd. Losses, if any, at this location, have yet to be determined.

A suspect was captured on a surveillance video and is described as being a male, of unknown ethnicity, with short hair, and wearing a jacket or hoodie and shorts.
